Nicole Newitt

'The Link', dance performance

Nicole Nevitt is an independent movement artist and martial arts practitioner from Solihull, UK, working in live performance, film, television and theatre.

After graduating with a BA (Hons) in Contemporary Dance (First Class) 2017-2020, from Northern School of Contemporary Dance, Leeds, she joined Scottish Dance Theatre under artistic directorship of Joan Clevillé. Since 2021, Nevitt has worked with an extensive selection of artists, companies and brands, collectively evolving her physical and intellectual curiosities as a mover.

Her practice centres around atmospheres, aesthetic worlds, sensations and places of absurdity. Inspired by threading, uncertainty and the necessity of connection this duet is an ongoing exploration and play of two beings whose limbs are intricately woven together.

Nicole is delighted to share her work in association with Surreal Solihull. Emmy Bridgwaters exquisite mastery within the Surrealist Movement continues to inspire Nicole's relationship to the subconscious within her movement practice.

'The Link' is performed by Nicole Nevitt and Hannah Woodliffe.

Instagram: @nicnevitt, @hannahwoodliffe

SURREAL

