Chantelle

Join our troublesome protagonist Charlie in a surreal fever dream of adventure! Imagine 'Night at the Museum' meets 'The Water Babies' with a dash of 'The Mighty Boosh' as Charlie embarks on a journey of discovery meeting odd characters from famous Surrealist artworks. With a little help from the audience, will Charlie have what it takes to learn from the greats, win the school art competition and discover the call to be a great artist?

Charlie will learn along the way that not all art is just fruit in a bowl or a woman with a half smile...sometimes it's a lobster on a phone.

'Lobster Phone', performance art piece

Chantelle Oriss is a local theatre maker and the Artistic Director of Disorderly Company, an interdisciplinary theatre company committed to bringing flamboyant and fun stories to people of all ages.

Toby Ford is a quiz host, a children's entertainer, a comedic improv actor, a costume designer, puppeteer and the driving force behind Birmingham's best (and only) drag murder mystery ensemble 'Killer Queens'.

Instagram: @disorderlycompany

SURREAL TINHTS

